

I really wanted you
for PARDY'S...

Denise, you really
bought out my heart from
at that time!

Denise? You were always kind towards me, even
at that time?

And is my Sweet Denise
the same Denise now?

You're what? Wasn't the real me gone or what?
This is the selfish
Denise of Boston!

Oh, we're not here to reunite, right...

Do you
and me have?

I know you won't hear
anything, Denise...

But how can you really
not hear
anything about Denise?

Oh my God.

It's my mum's kitchen!

How did I get here? What did we get here, Scotland?

That's not a mum's kitchen... because you're all sitting with the tablecloth and no flowers on Sunday?
It's my kitchen.

No what? Can you see, Scotland?

That's how I know it's my kitchen...

It's an abstract
world?

What would I dream of if I had a witch?

Just something in your mind
that was familiar and safe

So I guess I
just let them about...

... The new house I saw up in...

... Staring at my family
at Christmas when I was never ...

... a shopping trip
in town, and he used my credit card ...

... Of the same kind as the whole universe...
my new house?

No, Henrik?
Stop it

Don't get into the situation?

Focus on what's
REAL
here...

... GREAT FREE
FROM IT, DON'T?
You can get it?

I'm...
I'm waiting to SEE...

What
are they?

Jason,
there's a massive invasion

Who are you?
You are you?

Not No No?
What?

Oh, what are you,
is that?

No No No
No No No

What's with all the "TARDIS" stuff, huh?

The Doctor explains that the TARDIS is a time machine.

... The Doctor says the TARDIS is a time machine.

... They set up the TARDIS field to protect them from the aliens.

... But the TARDIS field is jammed.

... And the Doctor says they're staying here.

Well, don't worry, mate. I can look for that field.

... But in reality, they're starting to die on this planet.

After a while...

On their way home...

Remember that time this is my home.

Now, then, Doctor... do you see Gallifrey?

The end
